Roanoke Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROANOKE, Va., November 7.—Society in Roanoke has fallen completely under the influence of bridge, and when you are asked now to an entertainment of any kind you must know something about the game.

On Thursday Mrs. Samuel Cary won the prize, and on Friday, Mrs. John Reid.

Mrs. Edward Green entertained a number of friends Wednesday afternoon at bridge. Mrs. David Sites won the prize, an exquisitely embroidered handkerchief bag.

Mrs. A. J. Pitter entertained the Current Events and Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon. Some very high scores were made, showing that the members had profited by their frequent meetings.

Miss Lizzie Tullaferrero entertained a few of her intimate friends on Wednesday at seven-hand euchre.

Mrs. John W. Sherman entertained a number of friends at bridge on Thursday afternoon at her home on South Henry Street. Almonds and Monticello punch were served during the game, followed by salad and ice courses.

Miss Mary S. Darnall, the beautiful and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Darnall, who is now the soloist of St. John's Episcopal Church choir, possesses a beautiful lyric soprano voice. Both her low and high notes are sweet and clear, and of unusual strength. Professor A. W. Harned, organist and choirmaster of St. John's, is instructing Miss Darnall, and says that her voice has rare possibilities. Miss Darnall has frequently visited Richmond, and has many friends in the capital city.

The Music Lovers' Club met Tuesday night at the home of Miss Annie B. Fredman, on Henry Street; the music studied was Edward Grieg. The program was as follows: "Sketch of Grieg's Life," read by Miss Emily N. Leary; piano solo, "Norture," Miss Annie Fredman; violin solo, "Berceuse," Miss Hannah Cook; soprano solo, "Ich Liebe Dich," Miss Willie Hart; violin solos, "Anita's Dance" and "Death of Ase," Mr. John Meyers; mixed quartet, "Sunshine Song," Miss Edmondia Gray, Miss Mabel Joel, Messrs. Henry Gray and R. Feleburg. Miss Fredman is regarded as one of the most finished pianists of the city, and Mr. Meyers is regarded as a coming violinist.

The Daughters of the Confederacy had a ball and card party at the Mountain Park skating rink Friday night. There was a large attendance, and it was a most brilliant success.

Mrs. Eugene Vaughan, of Radford, who has been the guest of Miss Anna Wilson, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Arthur Huffman, of Covington, is the guest of Mrs. Webster Whitten. Miss Ruth Hart, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. Alexander Nelson.

Mrs. Phil Horton and Mrs. W. P. Brown, of Winston, are guests of Mrs. DeLois Thomas.

Misses Florence and Corinne Moorhead, of Lynchburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Smith.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. Lucien Cooke.

Miss Lulu Arnold, of Bedford City, is the guest of her brother, Mr. H. W. Arnold.

Raleigh Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., November 7.—Special social interest here the past week centered in the marriage of Mr. A. B.

Andrews, Jr., son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, of the Southern Railway, this city, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Media, Pa., daughter of Mr. W. M. Sharples, in Media, Pa., Thursday morning. The party from Raleigh for the wedding left here early in the week, including Colonel and Mrs. A. B. Andrews, parents of the bridegroom; William J. Andrews and John H. Andrews, brothers of the bridegroom. The marriage was in Christ Episcopal Church, Thursday noon, being followed by an elaborate wedding reception and breakfast at the Sharples home. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will spend a month traveling, and will thereafter be at home in Raleigh, where the bride is well known and has many admirers. She has visited here in the home of Mrs. Heck and others.

The Olla Podrida Book Club was entertained this week by Mrs. J. N. Holding. Much interest attaches to the addition of several new members, and the special literary program of papers and other entertainment proved especially enjoyable to the ladies.

Mrs. W. B. Mann was the hostess this week for the St. Luke's Circle, which held a meeting of much interest. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mr. Roy D. Riggan, well known druggist of Raleigh, and Miss Beattie Miller, of Manson, N. C., November 19th.

Mr. Benjamin S. Skinner, of this city, issues invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Rosa Piles, and Mr. Henry Hedley Dalton, Wednesday, November 13th, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Hill, on Newbern Avenue, sister of the bride-to-be. It will be a very quiet wedding on account of recent bereavement in the Skinner family.

A feature of Rounders' Day observed at St. Mary's School this week is an organ recital in the college chapel, in which Miss Bertha M. Loney, organist, was assisted by Miss Hull, as violinist, and Miss Gould, as vocalist. The affair was especially delightful. The announcement that regatta of this character will be given once each month on Sabbath afternoons in the college chapel for the friends of the institution is received with especial pleasure.

The Daughters of the Revolution met Monday afternoon and rounded up the final matters connected with the recent brilliant ceremonies characterizing the unveiling by the society of the handsome memorial to the ladies of the Edenton Tea Party. Matters pertaining to the publication of "The Booklet" were considered. It is gratifying information that "The Booklet," published by the society quarterly is as great literary and historical as well as financial success. The proceeds go to the patriotic work of the society. Mrs. E. E. Moffitt is president, and Mrs. W. H. Pace, secretary.

The art department of the Woman's Club held a most enjoyable meeting Thursday, in which "Art of Europe" was discussed most interestingly by a number of ladies who spent the summer abroad. Miss Pattle Carroll, Miss Pearl Heck, Miss Shipp, were among those who commented on European art as they saw it during the past summer. The art department is under the direction of Miss Mary Hillard Hinton, Dr. Della Dixon-Carroll, Mrs. James O. Litchford, Miss Julia Royster, Miss Dixie Leach.

Chase City Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHASE CITY, VA., November 7.—An eventful ten days in the hotel's history came to a close on Monday, which saw the departure of the National Beagle Club of America, G. Rockefeller, president. The meet was a thorough success, the Northerners were delighted, and the weather, with the exception of a few days, all that could be desired—typical Indian summer.

There was an enjoyable dance on Saturday evening, participants and on-lookers being Misses Nell Martin, Elizabeth B. Roberts, Irma Jeffries, Lucia Paxton, Lelding, Mary Burwell, Pelzer, Alma Elam, Krug, Isabel Norvell, Elsie Edmunds, Messdames B. C. McVey, W. B. Whitaker, A. C. Cooke, A. L. J. Boswell, Messrs. C. A. Vaden, John G. Sizer, B. C. McVey, Charles R. Stevenson, Alfred Houston, Chetwood Smith, Albert Brooks, L. B. Walker, Gilmore, W. B. Floss, J. Y. Yokeley, H. Hinsh, H. R. Cooley, Norvell and Price.

The most popular guests who have ever visited here, attended the beagle meet. Her charming manners and lovely, attractive personality endeared her to all who met her, and the friends she left were numbered by the people met.

The meet of the Virginia-Carolina Fox-Hunters' Association is now in full blast. Quite a number of people are here; others daily expected. Among the packs here are those of James T. Twitty, Buffalo, N. Y.; W. G. Coleman, Warrenton, N. C.; Joseph Pettus, Mecklenburg county; Smith Paul, Washington, N. C.; B. L. Walker, Lunenburg county. There are daily fox hunts and dances every evening, for which the ball room has been beautifully decorated.

Among those who go hunting every day are Colonel W. T. Hughes, H. Weil, Goldsboro, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. McVey, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Dr. A. H. Boyd, Wheeling, W. Va.; Joe Pettus, Virginia; James H. Roberts, Lynchburg, Va.; George W. Schurman, New York; A. A. Forrest, New York; Smith Paul, Washington, N. C.; J. E. Perkinson, Danville, Va.; Miss Clara C. Capehart, Ayco, N. C.; Miss Gertrude Fry, Miss Edith Fry, Washington, D. C.; B. L. Walker and Mrs. B. L. Walker, Phil. H. Hunt, North Carolina.

Others here for the hunt are Mrs. R. M. Macdonald, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. R. M. Fry, Richmond, Va.; R. Carr Wilson, Pottsville, Pa.; E. R. Turnbull, Jr., Lawrenceville, Va.; J. B. Chastain, New York; L. B. Walker, Norfolk.

Miss Gertrude Fry and Miss Edith Fry, daughters of Dr. H. D. Fry, of Washington, D. C., two lovely and attractive girls, prominent representatives of social life in Washington, are very popular and will be here for the entire time during the hunt.

Mrs. W. T. Hughes has as her guests for the hunt two charming and popular girls, Miss Elizabeth Roberts, of Chase City, and Miss Alma Elam, of Suffolk, who are adding to the social life.

The register shows the cosmopolitan attendance as follows: W. T. Beeson, C. Langley, New York; W. V. Deane, C. R. Day, W. Hunter Bell, Norfolk; H. T. Hinsh, Louisville, Ky.; Mark Roberts, Boston, Mass.; C. H. Hazard, T. C. Worth, Durham, N. C.; D. P. Clifford, Chelsea, Mass.; E. Higgins, Indiana; A. E. Strickler, Ohio.

Wytheville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WYTHEVILLE, VA., November 7.—There was a large and interesting meeting of the Wythe Greys Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Wednesday afternoon at "Ingleside," the residence of the president, Mrs. Stephen Putney. After the business meeting adjourned the guests were invited into the dining-room, where delightful refreshments were served.

Miss Katharine Barrett, who since her return from Paris has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Herman Heuser, left Monday for her home in Alexandria.

Rev. and Mrs. Chauncey Williams have returned to Mobile, after a visit of several weeks to friends in town.

Messrs. Mormont and Ferdinand Powell, of Johnson City, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs.

J. J. A. Powell, this week.

Mrs. Malcolm Robinson, of Graham's Forge, is the guest of Miss Rose Williams for a few days.

Mr. R. H. Patterson, of Charleston, W. Va., visited his mother, Mrs. Virginia Kent, this week.

Mrs. William Todd De Van and little daughter, left Monday to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Series in Vicksburg, Miss.

Mr. Hal Gibbons, Jr., has returned to the Theological Seminary, after a visit of a few days to his parents.

Miss Edna Proctor, of Galveston, Tex., a recent guest of Mrs. Thomas H. Dew, left Tuesday to spend some time in Christiansburg, Va.

Montvale Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

MONTVALE, VA., November 7.—Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Buff of Lexington, returning from a visit to the Rev. John Ruff at Penick, spent a night at Montvale, and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Price. Dr. and Mrs. Early had for their guest last Sunday Mrs. Gerard, of Buchanan.

Mr. W. H. Patterson, of California, a recent visitor at the home of Captain and Mrs. N. C. Luck.

Mr. George Patterson, of Buchanan, spent Sunday with his sister, Miss Manie, at Edgemoor Hill.

Miss Margaret Rice had for her guests on Monday Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor and daughter, as Elizabeth, of Ringgold.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Heuser and children, of Max Meadows, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Buford last week, returned home on Monday.

Mr. George Hanson is visiting friends in the vicinity of Max Meadows.

Miss Maudie Rice, returning from a week visit to friends at Christiansburg, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Price.

Mr. Nelson Sale, of Bedford, and Mr. Walter Okey, from Randolph, Mass., accompanied Mrs. Hanson on her visit to Max Meadows.

Mr. George Riggs has returned to Spout Run, his place of business, and Mr. Walter Riggs has gone to Roanoke to engage in business.

The book party at Edgemoor Hill on October 30th, with its decorations, refreshments and Halloween sports, was thoroughly enjoyed by both young and old folks. Presumably there were forty guests present, as that number of books were added to the town library on that occasion.
